General (non-Author) Registration in ConfSys

For the impatient:

In order to register in ConfSys for an event, you need to be a signed-up user and have completed the profile and have your user name and password handy.

- Sign up for ConfSys by using the New User button and completing your email address.
- User the UserID and password emailed to you complete your profile and exit.
- Log-in to ConfSys and change to the correct event.
- Use the My Account>Registration menu item.
- Choose appropriate general main registration(non-author) options.
- choose any add-ons (accompanying person)
- Make on-line payment using a third party system.
- You may register for add-ons at a later date, however all add-ons require a main registration.
- Once the registration is confirmed, you would be able to upload the final version of a paper for which you had registered.

For the rest:

Once the registration process is active, log-into ConfSys and choose the event for which you want to register and pay. Using the My Account function menu, choose the My Registration link.

Illustration 6: Paypal screen for making payment

Pay pal accepts a variety of credit cards; payment could be made, also, from a PayPal account. Note: An un-confirmed registration would be deleted if not paid in a reasonable time.

Items may be added to a confirmed registration at a later time. Make sure to choose the same currency for all items.
